

Annie Chen
Deputy Chief Executive
China Construction Bank (Asia)

Ms. Annie Chen is the Deputy Chief Executive of China Construction Bank (Asia) Corporation Limited (“CCB (Asia)”), responsible for the Bank’s Private Banking, Consumer Banking, Commercial Banking, Credit Card and Consumer Finance, e-Banking, Product Innovation, Data Management and Marketing businesses.

Ms. Chen has over 25 years of business management experience in local and international banks before joining CCB (Asia) in 2022. Backed by the CCB Group's diversified services and strong network in Hong Kong and Mainland China, CCB (Asia) is committed to providing customers with comprehensive, one-stop and integrated financial services across the region.

Prior to joining CCB (Asia), Ms. Chen had worked in Standard Chartered Bank (Hong Kong) Limited for 20 years and held various major positions including Managing Director and Head of Digital Banking, Managing Director and Head of Investment Products in Wealth Management, Head of Risk and Process Management Governance in Wealth Management, Head of Customer Business Strategy and Credit Card Team Manager, etc.

Ms. Chen is currently a Director of CCB Securities Limited, a Council member of the Hong Kong Institute of Bankers and was a Board member of Joint Electronic Teller Services Limited (“JETCO”) and EPS Company (Hong Kong) Limited.

Ms. Chen holds a Master of Science in Investment Management from the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology Business School.